Let's All Dance to The Christmas Carol Rag

BLT's next production, The Christmas Carol Rag, is a spunky take on the Dickens classic. The story of Scrooge's redemption is set in the exciting, ragtime world of New York, circa 1911. Evelyn Scrooge runs her sweatshop with an iron fist but slowly opens her heart as she is visited by a Yiddish-spouting Ghost of Christmas Past and a gospel-wailing Ghost of Christmas Present. The score, which includes songs by Victor Herbert and George M. Cohan, brings the age old Christmas story to life with rousing production numbers set to familiar songs from "Hello, My Baby" to "The Streets of New York." Wildly funny and deeply moving, The Christmas Carol Rag brings a new twist to an old chestnut.

Playwright Norman Allen is the recipient of a Charles MacArthur Award for Outstanding New Play and two regional Emmy Awards for documentary writing. During a long association with Signature Theatre he premiered Melville Slept Here, Nijinsky's Last Dance (Helen Hayes Award, Outstanding Play), In the Garden (MacArthur Award), The Christmas Carol Rag, and Fallen from Proust, with subsequent productions throughout the United States, South Africa and Europe. Mr. Allen's work has been commissioned and produced by the Kennedy Center and several other top performance venues.

Heading the cast as Mrs. Scrooge is Cheryl Walkup who wowed audiences with her portrayal of free-spirited radio station owner Hazel Hunt in Radio Gals. Young Miss Scrooge is played by Abigail Arnold, Nita Porter is Janet Marley, Augustin Edmundson is Bob Cratchit, Alexis Burrell is Anne Cratchit, Alicia Elias is Ghost of Christmas Past, and Ann Munch is Ghost of Christmas Present. The cast is rounded out by Doug Huth, Monty Burrell, Abby McKee, Allie Cagen, Tom Arnold, Jessica Wright, Brooklyn Burrell, Joseph F. Hall, and Sonia Arnold.

Performances of The Christmas Carol Rag are on December 2, 3, 4 at 8 PM, and December 5 at 3 PM, all performances at the American Legion Hall, 55 East Jordan Street, Brevard. For more information or to make reservations, call BLT at 884-BLTR(2587).
